SCHOOL BOND ISSUE

SCHOOL TRUSTEES OF DISTRICT INSTRUCTED TO CALL $100,000 BOND ELECTION

A group of representative citizens was present at the adjourned school district meeting, held in the Intermediate School Monday evening to discuss a bond issue and the amount of money that is required to meet the school needs of the district.

In the absence of the chairman, Mrs. Arthur Brown, who was prevented by illness from attending, the meeting, was called to order by Superintendent Richardson D. White, who, on the motion of Mrs. A. A. Barton, was elected chairman for the evening.

The report of the advisory committee of investigation, consisting of Ezra Parker, Mrs. W. A. Kulp and Mrs. Mary O. Ryan, was called for and upon being presented by Mr. Parker was read by the chairman as follows:

Glendale, Cal., June 19, 1919.
Committee on Investigation,
Glendale City School District.
Ladies and Gentlemen:—

I wish to submit for your consideration the following data in reference to the present grammar school at Culver City:

NEW REAL ESTATE PARTNERSHIP

J. W. M. Burton, who has been associated with Calvin Whiting in the real estate business, has just entered into a partnership with C. L. Chandler, who has recently opened an office at 133 South Brand. Mr. Burton is better known to Glendale people as the man who built the Glendale-Montrose Railway and who was its general manager for several years.

C. L. Chandler is a son of C. C. Chandler, who at one time owned the Pacific Tile Factory's plant and who was a large property owner in the south end of this city.

FINE CROP PROSPECTS

J. J. Burke of 1242 South Maryland, who recently returned from Indianapolis, where he attended the meeting of the Shriners, speaks in glowing terms of the crop prospects. Kansas seemed one vast wheat field. Iowa and Missouri had late cold weather and heavy rains, so the corn was backward and yellow looking, but in Illinois the corn fields were superb. Portions of Nebraska and Colorado, which Mr. Burke knew 15 years ago as vacant prairies is now rich farming land, mostly in wheat.

NO ACCIDENT WEEK

In every Glendale church Sunday morning was read an appeal by W. H. Whalen, Superintendent of Los Angeles Division U. S. Railroad Administration, to the ministers of the state to aid in the "No Accident Week" plan. This is in the form of a contest between railways of different regional divisions to endeavor to have no accidents of any kind during the week of June 22-29. The aid of the ministers was solicited to urge the autoists of their congregations, who could not be reached in any other way, to use especial care in approaching railway crossings that all accidents might be averted. If this is a success the next drive should be for a no accident month, then year. Accidents kill more people in the United States every year than there were U. S. soldiers lost in the World War.

RED CROSS CERTIFICATES

Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, chairman of the local Red Cross Chapter, announces that the national society is now issuing certificates to all Red Cross workers who have to their credit 800 or more hours of work since April, 1917. Any person who is entitled to a certificate of this kind can secure it by applying at the headquarters on Brand boulevard.

RENEW THEIR VOWS

FRIENDS OF INA PARK AND WILLIAM MAYER REJOICE IN THEIR REMARRIAGE

The home of D. H. Johnson, 328 W. Colorado St., was the scene of a very pretty wedding Monday evening, June 23d, when Miss Ina Park was reunited in matrimony to her former husband, William Mayer, of Portland, Oregon.

Dr. E. H. Willisford performed the ceremony. Master Sammie Johnson acting as ring bearer, the flower girl being Elizabeth Johnson, who carried a large basket of roses.

The bridal couple left for San Francisco where they will visit relatives before returning to Portland where Mr. Mayer is in business and where they will make their home. Dan Johnson was not present as he is in Chicago looking after business matters there.

Edmonds, at the Presbyterian manse, the only witness being the father of the bride, Charles Rich, of Inglewood. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left for San Diego where they will spend a few weeks and on their return will be at home to their friends at 131 South Louise street, Glendale. GERMANS INSULT FRENCH FLAG

OFFICIALS AND SOLDIERY BURN TRI-COLOR EMBLEMS WHICH THEY HAD PROMISED TO RETURN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, June 24.—A Coblenz dispatch says that a crowd of German officers and soldiers took fifteen captured French flags from their museum which the Germans had agreed to return when peace was signed, and burned them publicly.

The Berlin Vossiche Zeitung today declared that the Bauer cabinet resigned under pressure exerted by Ludendorff and von Hindenburg before the National assembly convened yesterday. The story is discredited here because Bauer sent a note accepting the peace treaty.

Official circles indicated that the treaty would be signed Friday or Saturday at Versailles. It has been officially announced that German foreign minister Mueller has been named as president of the German delegation to sign the treaty. The delegation has twenty members.

It is understood that diplomatic relations with Germany will not be resumed until after the ratification of the peace pact is completed but the German peace delegates will act for Germany at Paris in the meantime.

RACE EQUALITY APPEAL

AMERICAN NEGRO TRIES TO GET ACTION BY PEACE CONFERENCE AND TO STIR UP JAPANESE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, June 24.—William Trotter, the American negro who is now here trying to get the peace conference to consider the negro question, has given the British press a long list of alleged atrocities in the United States against negroes, citing lynchings. He is also trying to enlist the sympathy of the Japanese by telling the Japanese delegates that the negro question and the Japanese question in the United States involve the same questions of race equality.

SENATE DIVIDED ON TREATY

NOT ENOUGH VOTES TO EITHER ACCEPT OR REJECT IT—PRESIDENT EXPECTED TO MAKE SHARP ISSUE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Advocates of the league of nations today presented the opposition with a set of statistics on the cost of war as an argument in favor of the league. They showed that a total of 7,582,300 men were killed; between $185,000,000,000 and $195,000,000,000 were spent; 23,000,538 tons of merchant ships and 1,000,852 tons of warships were sunk.

Administration circles understand that President Wilson has been advised that the peace treaty situation in the Senate is: There are not enough votes to pass the Knox resolution to separate the league of nations from the peace treaty, or to pass the Fall resolution for the immediate ratification of the treaty and there is not a two-thirds majority in favor of the treaty. It is expected the president will attempt to make the issue an alternative and choose between accepting the treaty as it stands, a separate peace with Germany or a continued state of war.

SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST BAKER

PURCHASE OF LAND FOR SCHOOL OF ARMS AFTER ARMISTICE CALLED A "BREACH OF TRUST"

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 24.—During prolonged debate today in the Senate on the army bill Senator Lenroot charged Secretary Baker with a gross breach of trust. He declared that Baker committed a moral wrong when he obligated the government to spend several millions of dollars for land at Camp Benning, Ga., to be used as a school of arms after the armistice had been signed. He insisted it was a "breach of trust" which if committed in normal times would come very close to leading to impeachment.

Chairman Royal Johnson of the special House committee which is investigating war department expenditures promised that he would bring out "startling disclosures of waste and extravagance beyond comprehension" in the war department's expenditures in foreign countries.

LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE

BIG DOINGS AT CONVENTION BEING HELD AT MOOSEHEART, ILLINOIS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

MOOSEHEART, Ill., June 24.—A peace victory parade has been arranged for the Friday session of the Loyal Order of Moose in session here this week. Invitations have been extended to President Wilson, Vice-President Marshall and Premier Borden of Canada. Officials fully expect Marshall and Borden to be present.

A feature of the week's session was the exhibition of many manufactured products from Mooseheart. Practically all concrete art work needed for structures at Mooseheart, and many other products are fashioned on the grounds by students in the Mooseheart trade schools.

MORE INITIATIONS

EIGHT NEW MEMBERS ARE WELCOMED TO ELKDOM WITH PROPER CEREMONIALS

At the local Elks' Lodge Monday evening, eight men were initiated into Elkdom with the ceremonies conducted in an impressive manner. The candidates thus received were: Fred C. Volkhart and George C. Love of Glendale; Raymond Sehlhaber, of Tujunga; J. T. Hathaway, Sam Frumpkin and Leo A. Mathis, from Fillmore; W. H. Brooks, from San Fernando, and J. G. Vandenburg, who was initiated for the Santa Monica Lodge.

It is believed to be the largest meeting that the Elks have had since they took possession of their new home. Thirty members were present from Fillmore, fifty visitors from Pasadena and about the same number from Los Angeles. Then there were scattering guests from New York City and other parts of the United States. It appears that the Glendale Lodge is acquiring such a reputation that it attracts the visitors who come from all parts of the country to Los Angeles.

Following the meeting a fine musical entertainment was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Since April 1st the Glendale Lodge has initiated something over sixty members and this promises to be the banner year of the organization.

R. G. MUHLEMAN VISITS GLENDALE RELATIVES

R. G. Muhleman, who was connected with the Glendale postoffice for 12 years, living on Valley View Road, is now located away out near the Arizona line, close to the S. P. and National Old Trails Highway. When he had the flu last winter it left him in extremely bad shape physically and he was told by his physician to seek a very warm, dry climate. He found a quaint old place where desert meets mountain, 1800 feet above sea level, and in sight of great apple orchards. A Scotchman had built a large 8-room house, with sleeping porches all around, set in a grove of trees. There were 2½ acres of ground and the Scotchman planned to make quite a resort out of it. But something called him away and Mr. Muhleman secured the place and moved his family out there last February. He has lived in the open and is again in rugged health. He motored over to Glendale Sunday to see his relatives, making the 100-mile trip in 4 hours. He goes back today. His place is 16 miles beyond Palm Springs and Cabazon, Calif., is the euphonious name of the postoffice nearest him.

VISIT OLD PEOPLE'S HOME

Four auto loads of members of Central Christian Church went to Long Beach this morning taking with them eatables, periodicals and money for the inmates of the Old People's Home on the slopes of Signal Hill. This is a yearly custom of the church people and they provide a week's supply of eatables for the old people. M. H. Berry, E. H. Learned, J. W. Graham and Dr. Durfee took their autos and a dozen or more of the church members went along.

EVERYBODY OUT TONIGHT

Fine stereopticon service tonight in the Lutheran Church, corner Harvard and Maryland, at 8 o'clock. John Makins, Supt. of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Rest Mission, of San Pedro, will be present tonight and give a talk on his splendid work at the Los Angeles Harbor and will enforce his address with beautiful pictures of his work. Let all the Young People's Societies of Glendale and vicinity and everybody who wishes to come be present to give Mr. Makins a rousing welcome to Glendale. Good lively music, and a general good religious time tonight. Come and enjoy it, everybody.

TREBLE CLEF ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Calvin Whiting of 342 West Lexington Drive entertained the Treble Clef Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Opal Greenwalt, recently returned to Glendale from the North.

The Whiting home was charmingly decorated with pink verbenas and forget-me-nots. The afternoon was devoted to music, the ladies rehearsing some of the numbers they sang together a year ago, and Mrs. C. J. Letts contributing several charming solos. Ladies who enjoyed Mrs. Whiting's hospitality were: Mesdames George Herald, Eva Hutton, A. A. Barton, Thomas Ault, R. A. Puffer, A. R. Chappell, C. J. Letts and Opal Greenwalt.

YOSEMITE TRIP

PRESTONS FIND ROADS LEADING TO NATIONAL PARK IN BAD CONDITION

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Preston and children, Shirley and Miss Jeannette McClennon returned Monday afternoon from a pleasant outing in Yosemite National Park. In speaking of the trip Mr. Preston said, "The present condition of the roads may be of interest to those contemplating this very enjoyable automobile journey.

"Leaving Glendale at 6:30 a. m. June 16th the first day's run was 200 miles to Tulare which we reached at 5:30 p. m. The detour through Bouquet Canyon is the only unpleasant portion of the road although there is quite a stiff climb over the Tilton range which is crossed at a little over 4000 feet.

"Leaving Tulare at 7 a. m. the second day we drove 125 miles to Fish camp via Madera, Raymond and Course Gold. The road was far from good, spite of much advertising propaganda to the contrary. Heavy rains of two or three weeks ago, followed by heavy travel have resulted in a condition of deep ruts, many exposed rocks and deep chuck-holes. Fish camp lies at an elevation of 5300 feet. The morning we left there the ground and the top of our machine were white with frost. Two cars with broken axles and one with broken springs were stalled there waiting for new parts.

"The third day we drove to Camp Curry, fifty miles, including a side trip of thirteen miles to the Mariposa grove of big trees. All of this road is rough except the last fifteen miles with many steep pitches and narrow "one-way" stretches of road.

"Guide books and folders tell the story of Yosemite far better than I can. But be sure to get your reservation before you make the trip, as long lines of people besiege the of-

BIDAMON-ALLEN

Charles A. Bidamon and Miss Rachel Allen were united in marriage Sunday afternoon by Dr. Charles H. Scott at his home, 315 North Jackson street. The wedding was a quiet affair, the only guests present being relatives and close friends of the bride and groom. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Straud of East Maple St., Glendale. Those present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Straud, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. George Henry and Doty L. Anderson all of Glendale, Lieutenant and Mrs. Henry Webb of San Diego and Mr. and Mrs. Whitten of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Bidamon left for San Diego where they will spend their honeymoon and on their return they will reside in Los Angeles where the groom is employed.

MORE HILL FIRES

The fire company was called to the Woodberry ranch, Sunday, to put out a grass fire that was gaining considerable headway under the impetus of the stiff breeze that was blowing. It was soon brought under control. Monday the chief's car driven by Jack Wagnon and carrying two helpers, made a fast run to Eagle Rock, where, back of the Bourne residence on Eagle Rock Road, a fire was eating its way up over the hill and being fought heroically by a number of Eagle Rock people. While they put in their best licks on one side of the burning area the Glendale contingent did likewise on the other and the flames were soon extinguished. Had the fire gone on over the hill several residences would have been destroyed. Eagle Rock people warmly thanked the Glendale men for coming to the rescue.

BROADWAY FIFTH GRADE PUPILS HAVE PICNIC

After school closed Friday morning a happy class of youngsters, pupils of the Fifth Grade room in the Broadway School, took the car on Wilson avenue and hied them to the cool retreats up Verdugo Canyon for a picnic.

They—with Mrs. Kulp's assistance—roasted weiners and had luncheon ready by the time their teacher, with some of the other mothers, arrived with ice cream for all. Everyone had all the good time he or she could squeeze into the four happy hours spent in the canyon, then parted with good wishes for all and plans for a merry vacation, then splendid work next fall in school.

Their teacher, Mrs. Mandis, and Mrs. Horner each brought a freezer full of ice cream, Mrs. Kulp the weinies, and Mrs. Aichholz and Mrs. Hosack lent their assistance in every way.

OFFICIAL LYING CHARACTERISTIC OF GERMANS

Under Secretary of State von Braun once made a notable little speech during the war, in which he presented to the reichstag—and, incidentally, to the German people and the world—the irrefutable facts which proved that Germany could not be starved into a breakdown; that if the allies were counting on the blockade and the food and raw material shortage to win the war, they were doomed to bitter disappointment and, finally, that, if the allies did not make an early peace with Germany, something awful would soon happen to them.

The second official interview that Doctor Taylor and I had in Berlin, in February, was with Under Secreary of State Von Braun. On this occasion he made us a notable little speech, in which he presented the irrefutable facts which proved that Germany's breakdown was due, practically, entirely to her shortage in food and raw materials, and that unless something was done quickly to relieve the existing terrible situation, she would simply explode into revolution and bolshevist anarchy, and the allies would have to face the awful something that such a catastrophe in mid-Europe would entail.

This illustrates one of the difficulties which faced those who attempted to learn anything about Germany's condition before the debacle by listening to German declarations about it, and which faces those today who would try to know something of Germany's present condition by taking a German official's word for it.

Official lying seems to be the German national sport. Under Secretary of State Von Braun lied to the German people and the world when he made his Reichstag speech. But that has little importance for us now. What does have importance is, how much are he and others lying now, when they pretend to reveal in all candor the German situation which must largely determine the attitude and action that the allies and America have to take toward Germany now and for some time to come.

With regard to this I may say at once that I think Under Secretary Von Braun lied less to us in Berlin in February than he lied to the German people and the world during the war. We have certain extrinsic proofs of this.—Vernon Kellogg in Atlantic Monthly.

WAR AND MORALS

Just at the moment, much is being said and written about the laxity in manners and morals which has appeared since the ending of the war. All great crises have had just such social reactions. The period of the French directory, for instance, was extraordinarily profligate and loose. Dancing, too, was the rage.

Yet, though today's "jazz" is vulgar and Hottentot, it is less repulsive to modern minds than the Ball of the Victims made illustrious by the lovely Madame Tallien. These balls were the height of the fashion, and everybody had to wear a coiffure a la Victime, which, being interpreted, meant a style in which the hair was pulled up from the nape of the neck, and held by a comb to keep it out of the way of the guillotine.

For some years, therefore, we shall probably have to look forward complacently to unsettled weather in civilized manners and morals. But a reaction will come. The pagan days of the English regency ended in Victorian propriety, horsehair furniture and crinoline.—Monrovia News.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

To the wide world of dictionary users, some of the most interesting paragraphs of a recent book about Dr. Johnson deal with the making of his famous Dictionary. The only preceding effort to record and define all the words used by Englishmen had been made in 1721 by Nathaniel Bailey. Johnson's Dictionary, carried forward with other literary labors, took eight years in the making, during which he lived first in Holborn, and then in Gough Square, Fleet Street. His custom was to write each word separately, like an island in a sea of white paper, and then fill the sea with other islands of definition and etymology, after which the sheet went to his copyist for a clean copy. At the same time Johnson was bringing out The Rambler, a periodical whose "grave and solid cast," says Boswell, "made it, for some time, not generally liked." So slowly did it gain its final following that "even in the closing number the author says, 'I have never been much of a favorite with the publick.' "—C. S. Monitor.

DOESN'T LIKE TO HEAR TRUTH ABOUT ITSELF

The Mexican government protests against the speech of Congressman Gillett to the general effcet that Mexico is the main obstacle to a better unity and more proper relations throughout the two Americas. Naturally Mexico would object. Truth and honesty are apparently not much valued in governmental circles in Mexico, but dignity is enormously overvalued. What Congressman Gillett said was of course true. But that is not the point. He treated Mexico as a less responsible and less trustworthy government than the other nations of Latin-America. This was nearly as bad as insinuating that Pancho Villa is not a learned and cultivated gentleman. All Latin-Americans are ex-officio learned and cultivated, whether they can read or not, and it is impolite to disturb this ex-officio theory with mere facts.

However, in this instance Congressman Gillett does not need to bear alone the responsibility for expressing this uncomplimentary judgment of the Mexican government. In fact, that responsibility is shared by the remainder of civilized mankind, if the expressions of the representatives of the nations at Paris may speak for their people. The Paris conference divided the nations of the world into three classes. One class consisted of the uncivilized tribes, which can not govern themselves. The second class consisted of every organized, independent nation on earth, with the sole exceptions of Germany, Austria, Russia, Turkey, Mexico and Costa Rica. Germany and Austria are enemy nations which may be taken into the league as soon as they accept peace, maintain responsible governments and give the necessary guarantees. Russia has no government and of course can not be dealt with for the present. Turkey has no rights. This leaves, of actual nations not destroyed by war, Mexico and Costa Rica in a class by themselves. In fact, inasmuch as Costa Rica is now in revolution and has no government, it leaves Mexico in a class completely by itself as the one completely irresponsible and untrustworthy government on earth, with which the remainder of the nations of the earth unanimously refuse to deal on the basis of equality or honesty. This is infinitely more offensive to Mexico's dignity than anything Congressman Gillett said. Its author is the Paris peace conference, representing all the responsible nations in the world.—Fresno Republican.

BRITISH BUILD MONSTER PLANE

(By United Press)

FARNBOROUGH, England. (By Mail).—The Tarrant Aircraft Construction Company has just finished building the biggest aeroplane in the world.

It is a triplane, the middle plane of which is 131 feet wide. Above and below this are two planes, each 98 feet long. All three planes are 15 feet 2 inches deep. The body is 76 feet long (10 feet longer than the biggest biplane), and the height is 37 feet.

The pilot's seat juts out 12 feet beyond the line of the planes. The body of the machine resembles a whale in length and girth, with a great blunt-ended nose. Between the planes are six Napier-Lion engines, each developing 500-horsepower. Four of them operate two-bladed tractor propellors; two of them four-bladed "pusher" propellors.

WILL HIT THE CONSUMER

The American Federation of Labor proposes a general 6-hour day to solve the problem of unemployment. As this means one-third more workers to turn out the same amount of work, it also means one-third higher prices for all products. This will hit the consumers, who are already groaning under the cost of everything. With so many new enterprises opening up it would seem there ought to be work for every one desiring to labor, with an 8-hour or even a 10-hour day. The trouble is that the labor union agitator expects the same wage for six hours' work as for 8 or 10, while the vast body of honest workmen, union and non-union, really desire to give a full day's work for a full day's wage.

TWELFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Frank Booth, the coffee king, and Mrs. Booth, went Sunday to Van Nuys to celebrate their twelfth wedding anniversary at the home of Mrs. Curtis, taking a little wedding cake along. They surprised Mrs. Curtis and after enjoying cake and tea returned in the early evening by way of the old San Fernando Mission. Mrs. Curtis was present at their wedding twelve years ago in San Francisco.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Booth were pleasantly surprised by the rising talent on Gardena avenue. At 9 o'clock as the curfew whistle blew when all good children were supposed to be asleep and dreaming of their summer vacations in the mountains or by the sea and while Mr. and Mrs. Booth were enjoying the cool of the evening on their porch after the heat of the day, several phantom figures gaudily arrayed were seen approaching through the dusk of the evening. Presently it developed that they were there for a surprise entertainment. They were invited inside and the floor was cleared. Neighbor McCoy brought in a phonograph with a supply of dance records and the various numbers given would put to shame some of our professionals.

Miss Margaret Brown opened with a real Scotch Highland Fling in costume which was most creditable and which received, as did all, a hearty encore. Luella Ashton gave a costume dance; Marvel Baker, the barefoot Glow worm dance, which was most gracefully executed; Helen Hornung, a Spanish dance. Evelyn Hornung contributed a piano solo. She is a charming musician and furnished the accompaniment for Mr. Booth's vocal solo, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," bringing to a close a very pleasant evening long to be remembered by Mr. and Mrs. Booth.

CLASS YELLS AND ICE CREAM CONES

Friday morning, June 20th, was a happy day for the graduating class of the Broadway School. After being told they were promoted they gave their class yells and some others, then were told to form in line and march to the kindergarten room. There they were greeted by Mrs. A. A. Barton and Mrs. L. M. Kulp, who inquired if they thought coming from the Sixth Grade to the kindergarten a promotion.

They took the teasing good-naturedly and then to the strains of a lively march played by Mrs. Salisbury they filed past the desk and received a treat of an ice cream cone each, with the best wishes of the P.-T. A.

The class then repeated their yells with much vim, and added one for the Broadway P.-T. A. and pledged themselves to work for the good of dear old Broadway and all the schools of Glendale.

SOUTHLAND BECOMING INDUSTRIAL CENTER

More and more we find manufacturers seeking the Pacific coast to locate main or branch factories. One of the biggest motor truck companies in the country has two large factories already in and near Los Angeles, there are several great iron works plants in different coast cities, as well as aeroplane manufactories, flouring mills, cotton seed mills for making oil and feed, great sugar factories, cereal and chemical products manufactories, piano factories and the like. Now comes the announcement that a great rubber conmpany is to put up at once a $6,000,000 plant in Los Angeles to manufacture tires and fabrics. All this will boost the industrial life of the Southland. Now, if employers and workers can get along with each other so as to avoid strikes all will be well.

SINN FEINERS AFTER COURTS

(By United Press)

DUBLIN. (By Mail).—Sinn Feiners are out to capture the Irish courts.

Encouraged by their success in the recent General Election, Sinn Fein conventions in several counties have decided to contest all seats for County and District Courts in Ireland.

Gaelic speakers are, as far as possible, to be elected so that the proceedings may be conducted in the Irish language as was done at the opening session of the Irish Republican Convention (Dail Eireann).

Sinn Fein courts are now being established and several cases have already been heard.

PRICES JUMP ALL OVER ITALY

(By United Press)

ROME. (By Mail).—Startling comparisons between pre-war prices and the present cost of living in Italy have been submitted to the Joint Centenary Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church, by Dr. Luigi Lala, Methodist pastor at Turin. The commission is making a special study of the problem, prior to opening a chain of neighborhood houses in the factory centers of northern Italy and in the redeemed lands.

Clothes, food and household furniture have all undergone a tremendous increase in price, according to Dr. Lala. A pair of shoes which, before the war came to twelve francs, cannot be purchased now for less than sixty francs (nearly $12). An overcoat which formerly cost eighty francs is now marked at 250 francs. Even shoes for a baby of six months have gone up from three francs to ten francs. A kilo of beef which the pre-war buyer could get for three francs now comes to thirteen francs, which is somewhat over two dollars.

Perhaps the most marked increases of all is in the line of household furnishings. A sheet for a single bed costs forty francs, or nearly eight dollars, and in the old days the very best could be bought for only six francs. An ordinary spoon is valued at about sixty cents. Nearly forty dollars is what one must pay for a mattress only large enough for a single bed. Pianos which used to be worth $180, today cost $1000.

The tremendous rise in the price of necessities has caused much suffering and discontent, and many strikes are taking place.

Following passage of an anti-gambling law, Oakland gamblers have arranged free auto service from Oakland to Emeryville to carry their customers.

the requirements here and prepare new specifications for a sum equal to 1½% of the cost of improvements or about $1,000.00.

This general plan seems to meet all requirements as to utility and beauty of design, and by adopting this design, and by making the necessary changes you would still be saving on your architectural work about $2,000.00.

I would recommend taking separate figures on a unit heating system of some kind, and if adopted would eliminate the need of a basement and a central heating plant as installed at Culver City which would cause a big saving.

Regarding appropriation for other sites, I believe the amount given in the following schedule would be sufficient for construction purposes:

Intermediate addition	$10,000
Furnishings	1,200
		$11,200
Columbus Ave. kindergarten	$ 2,500
Furnishings	900
		$ 3,400
Central Ave. kindergarten	$ 1,200
Furnishings	900
		$ 2,100
Broadway furnishings	$ 1,000	1,000
Broadway land purchase	6,600	6,600
Land at Cerritos Ave, front and rear	3,200	3,200
		$27,500
Estimated cost of Broadway School as above		72,500
		$100,000

Respectfully submitted,

EZRA F. PARKER.

The advisability of taking action at once or of waiting for a more general canvass of the situation was debated and Trustee Hibben explained the need of haste because of the situation with regard to the Broadway School building. Should the district refuse to vote the bonds for a new school building at that site, the trustees would be compelled to move the old building and there would be scant time in which to do it before school opens. If money for the new school is voted, the old building can remain where it is until the new one is ready for occupancy, he had been assured by city trustees.

In view of this urgency, on the motion of Mrs. A. A. Barton the Board of Trustees was instructed to call an election to vote on a bond issue of $100,000 as soon as possible.

Mr. White recited the advice given to him by a bond expert in regard to the denominations of the bonds and the period they should cover and on motion of Mrs. Kulp the meeting voted to leave all the details of the bond issue to the Board and the advisory committee.

Rev. A. B. Smart talked at some length of the advisability of instructing the committee to consider all possible building materials with a view to securing the cheapest that would be consistent with durability, and dwelt on the deposits of sand to be found on land in this locality which, he declares, is fine material for cement construction. The committee advised him that its instructions included the investigation of a variety of building materials, and after the meeting adjourned there were informal comments on Mr. Smart's suggestions on the part of men who have been contractors and who claimed the sand deposits could not be counted upon with any certainty as sometimes the stratum is very shallow.

The advisability of a larger advisory committee was considered and on motion of Rev. Smart the committee was authorized to enlarge its membership by nominating representatives from the various sections of the district.

The meeting then adjourned with the understanding that the advisory committee would meet with the Board of School Trustees Thursday evening for the transaction of any business delegated to it.

fice until eight or nine o'clock at night seeking accommodations which are not to be had. Not only is this true at Camp Curry with its 1250 guests but at all the other camps.

"It is painful to think of conditions here over the 'Glorious Fourth.' The valley is beautiful and the streams and water falls are still running quite free despite the dry summer.

"Returning we left in the 8 a. m. 'control' going by the Big Oak Flat road which we found to be very much better in every way than the Raymond, Course Gold route. We reached Modesto at 6:30 p. m., 110 miles from Camp Curry; heaviest grade 20 per cent.; highest point 7038 feet.

"After leaving the Yosemite Valley floor the roadway is cut along the face of a precipitous mountain-side and among huge boulders that have been washed down by severe storms. The outlook from this elevation was, we thought, more impressive than during any part of the entire trip.

"From Modesto the road runs via Montica to San Jose and thence south on the highway to Salinas and King City, the latter being our stopping place for the night, 197 miles from Modesto over very good roads and easy grades. Leaving King City at 8 a. m. Sunday, the 21st, we found an annoyingly rough detour of twelve miles before again striking the paved highway which runs south to San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara. Most of this is of cement construction but there are several unpaved and rough 'gaps' very trying to the temper. The day's run from King City to Santa Barbara was 195 miles; the ninety-nine miles from the latter city to Glendale are familiar to nearly all motorists. The entire mileage for the trip was 993 miles and no trouble was had at any point.

"Comparing the 'Rim of the World' and the Yosemite trips I should say the former was much superior as to grades and road bed and far less wearing upon tires and machine."

UNITED STATES STILL AT WAR

While the war really ends with the signing of the peace treaty by the signatory powers, technically the United States will be at war with Germany and Austria until the Senate ratifies the treaty, which may be days or weeks hence. Singularly enough we never have been formally at war with Turkey and Bulgaria though prepared to fight their soldiers at any time they should be met.

ANOHER TRIUMPH FOR CALIFORNIA

Next to building a road, man can perform no hard labor more flavored with romance than the construction of a ship. For many years it was believed impossible that California could successfully compete with Atlantic shipyards, but this was only another illusion which it took the war to shatter.

Climatically conditions here are infinitely better for labor than those prevailing in the east. The power possibilities are now on a reasonable basis of equality and our builders are willing to take their chances on steel and other material.

The latest triumph in the shipbuilding line for California was registered last week when the concrete tanker, "Palo Alto," was launched one month ahead of records set by four other shipyards in the United States. The first "pouring" was made January 20, and she entered the water 90 per cent complete, while steel and wooden craft are seldom more than 60 per cent ready when they take to the waves.—Sacramento Union.
